

IT Compliance Standards

Unscrambling the alphabet of requirements for systems security and data integrity

Unbeaten Path has assembled fairly comprehensive information about the broad array of regulations and requirements for information systems best practices. You have our invitation to learn about this alphabet of laws and regulations by clicking on the lines below.

- SOX (The Sarbanes-Oxley Act)
- PCAOB Auditing Standard No. 2 (Public Company Accounting Oversight Board: SOX)
- COBIT (Control Objectives for Information & Related Technology)
- 21 CFR part 11 (US Food & Drug Administration rule on electronic records and signatures)
- GLBA (The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Financial Modernization Act)
- HIPAA (The Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act)
- NIST 800 (National Institute of Standards & Technology – selected 800 series publications)
- California (two pieces of legislation)
- ISO 17799 (Code of Practice for Information Security Management)

Click here to see compliance ideas specifically related to BPCS / ERP LX

Click here to see compliance ideas not specifically related to BPCS / ERP LX

Unbeaten Path[®]